Come See us At 1405 Palmetto Blvd., Edisto Beach, SC 29438 On the Boulevard!
On behalf of the Edisto Chamber of Commerce, I would like to welcome you to Edisto Island - South Carolina’s best-kept secret. Edisto is the ultimate vacation destination. Come rent a beach cottage, throw a cast net for shrimp, dip your toes in the surf, or build a sand castle. Experience the perfect combination of oceanfront beaches, saltwater marshes and Lowcountry oaks draped in Spanish moss.

A year-round temperate climate provides for excellent outdoor recreational opportunities. Our coastal waters are filled with fish, shrimp, crabs and oysters. Take a leisurely bike ride, hike a nature trail, or kayak in a tidal creek. Beach walks and golf are yet other popular pastimes for that perfect day on Edisto.

We invite you to enjoy local seafood in our restaurants and look for unique items in our gift shops. Historic sites are prevalent on the Island, and our picturesque roads beg for a drive. We have a rich cultural heritage in which you can share. Boat and land tours are available. Our casual lifestyle and slow pace are a welcome break from the rush of everyday life.

For your most memorable vacation, come to where the rivers meet the ocean and let your cares drift away. We welcome you and hope your stay is so enjoyable that you just can’t wait to come back!

Please stop by the Chamber office, 430 Highway 174, for information about our area. You may reach us at 888-333-2781 or 843-869-3867.

Cordially,
Dan Carter, Executive Director, Edisto Chamber of Commerce

Edisto Island offers a variety of locations that are easily accessed year-round for bird watchers of all skill levels. Whether birding from the front porch, or in one of the many natural areas, visitors will be rewarded throughout the summer and winter months and during spring and fall migration. With multiple public beach access points, viewing beach and surf birds with binoculars, or a spotting scope, is easily accomplished. Brown pelicans, ring-billed gulls, herring gulls, laughing gulls, willets, sanderlings, and ruddy turnstones are commonly observed. Winter birding near the Pavilion will provide looks at red-breasted mergansers, red-throated loons, northern gannets with the occasional scoter and scaup. Access points near Big Bay Creek are a great place to see black skimmers, Forster’s terns, marbled godwits, dunlin, plovers and dowitchers. Bay Creek Park and Edisto Beach State Park provide access to saltmarsh habitats where great blue herons, tri-colored herons, great egrets, snowy egrets, swallows, marsh wrens, and clapper rails can be observed. Forest and scrub habitats, which occur in abundance along the Edisto Beach bike trail and Edisto Beach State Park, are great places to see painting buntings, blue-gray gnatcatchers, vireos, warblers, and woodpeckers. The many golf course ponds and the lagoons are good spots for the American anhinga, black-crowned night heron, green heron, hooded merganser, and belted kingfisher. Birdwatchers should also plan a trip to Botany Bay Wildlife Management Area. Only five miles away from the beach, this 4,687 acre public tract provides easy access to forest, field, marsh, and beach habitats. In addition to what can be seen on Edisto Beach, birds that can be viewed here include bald eagle, osprey, wood stork, white ibis, wild turkey, Wilson’s plover, buntings, sparrows, and a variety of other shore and songbirds. Those planning a day trip from Edisto Beach should also visit the ACE Basin National Wildlife Refuge, Donnelley Wildlife Management Area, and Bear Island Wildlife Management Area. These public areas lie within the Ashepoo, Combahee, and Edisto River watersheds (ACE Basin), a region renowned for an abundance of coastal habitats with excellent birding opportunities year round. Needless to say, Edisto Island is definitely a birding destination and one that is sure to provide a memorable outdoor experience.

EDISTO TRUE VALUE

Serving the Lowcountry, Columbia, Florence & Sumter Areas
Broiled Asparagas

Fresh Asparagus
Olive Oil
Lime Juice
Kosher Salt

Set oven to broil. Trim the ends off the asparagus and lay the stalks on a cookie sheet in a single layer. Pour a small amount of the olive oil over them and roll them around until they are lightly coated. Then sprinkle the lime juice and kosher salt over them. Place in the oven and broil for 3-5 minutes depending on the thickness of the stalks.

Ann Carol’s Southern Pecan Pie

1 9 inch deep dish pastry shell, thawed
3 eggs
2/3 cup sugar
1 cup dark corn syrup
1/3 cup melted margarine
1 cup pecans

Preheat oven to 350°. Combine all ingredients, place in pastry shell and bake for 50-55 minutes or longer if necessary.

Crock Pot Rotel Chicken

3 boneless skinless chicken breasts
2 cans of Rotel tomatoes (with or without chiles, do not drain)
8 oz. cream cheese
noodles or rice (of your choice)

Place the chicken and Rotel into the crock pot. Set your crock pot to low and let cook for about 4 – 6 hours, until chicken shreds apart with a fork. Shred all the chicken, add the cream cheese and cook for another hour. If it looks too soupy add some more cream cheese. Cook noodles or rice. Then serve the chicken over it.

Mimi’s Quick Biscuits

2 cups Bisquick
1 cup sour cream
1 stick melted butter

Kids Recipe Corner

Homemade Fruit Snacks

1/3 cup 100% frozen fruit juice concentrate thawed (will not work with pineapple)
2-3 25 oz. envelopes unflavored gelatin (2 for softer fruit snacks and 3 for firmer ones)
molds or rubber ice cube trays

Pour the thawed juice into a small saucepan. Sprinkle the gelatin over the juice and let it sit for a few minutes. Put the pan over medium heat and stir until all the gelatin is completely dissolved. Pour the mixture into a measuring cup with a spout so you can easily fill your molds. Fill the molds and allow to set at least 20 minutes. You can speed up the process a bit by putting them in the refrigerator.

Cookies & Cream

1 box/bag of your favorite chocolate chip cookies
Milk
Your favorite whipped topping

Pour the milk into a small bowl. Take your cookies and dip them in the milk one at a time and quickly (you don’t want them soggy). Place them in a single layer in a big bowl or container till they cover the bottom. Next place a layer of whip cream over the cookies. Repeat these layers ending with a layer of whipped cream. Take the crumbs from the cookie box/bag and sprinkle over the whipped cream. Refrigerate 10 minutes and then dig in.

Banana Bread

1 3/4 cups of all purpose flour
1 1/4 teaspoons of baking powder
1 1/4 teaspoons of baking soda
3/4 teaspoon of salt
1/3 cup of shortening, solid not liquid
2/3 cup of white granulated sugar
2 eggs slightly beaten
1 cup of mashed bananas -- 2-3 bananas needed

Sift the flour and then add the baking soda, salt, baking powder and sift one more time
Cream the shortening; add the sugar gradually and continue beating until light and fluffy
Add the eggs and mix until smooth
Add dry ingredients alternately with the mashed bananas stirring just enough to combine thoroughly...Do Not Beat

Turn into a greased loaf pan about 9 1/2 by 5 1/2 inches
Bake at 350 degrees for 1 hour or until a knife or toothpick comes out clean when inserted in the center of the loaf

Edisto Island’s beauty is evident as soon as you cross the bridge on National Scenic Highway 174. The non-developed road leads visitors to a more relaxed state of mind through the giant oaks, magnolias, and palms.

On the south end of Edisto Beach you will find the beautiful Plantation Golf Course which dates back to 1974 when Sam Snead and Bob Goalby played the first round.
The course, then known as Oristo, has a storied past but with new ownership was totally renovated in 2006. Seashore Supreme Paspalum grass was planted over the entire course and adds much to the beauty of the challenging layout.

The new Plantation Course is a par 70 layout measuring roughly 6200 yards from the back of four sets of tees. It operates as a public course with memberships. Many challenges exist for all skill levels who must conquer the narrow fairways, plentiful lagoons, and occasional ocean breeze.

The course is always maintained in a player friendly condition and is continually applauded for its excellent greens. The picturesque holes are further complimented by the abundant wildlife. Several alligators call the course home as well as deer and a variety of coastal birds.

The Plantation Course can best be described as a beautiful and challenging course where all skill levels enjoy a great golfing experience during each round. The commitment to service is evident from all members of the staff. The pro shop offers a wide selection of golf attire, shoes, accessories, and gift items as well.

Your stay in Edisto would not be complete without a visit to the Plantation Course.

Loggerhead nest season runs from MAY - OCTOBER

Loggerheads lay nests from May to mid-August while hatchlings emerge from the nests (after incubating) July - October.

Loggerheads are listed as threatened under the Endangered Species Act and are protected by federal and state laws.

WHAT SHOULD YOU DO?

If you encounter sea turtle hatchlings on the beach or an emerging nest, it is unlawful to disturb them and it can be harmful:

- Do not stand or sit on the sand dunes; it is unlawful to walk on the dunes.
- Do not approach any sea turtle hatchlings and give them plenty of space.
- Do not handle or hold sea turtle hatchlings.
- Do not carry, guide or help sea turtle hatchlings to the ocean.
- Do not shine any lights on the hatchling regardless of the color of the light.
- Do not turn on your cell phone.
- Do not take any pictures of the hatchlings; flash photography is harmful to the hatchling.

Any disturbance to a sea turtle nest or emerging hatchlings is unlawful and may harm the animal.

The information listed on this page was taken with permission from the South Carolina Department of Natural Resources. Visit their website for more information: http://dnr.sc.gov/seaturtle/
One individual female loggerhead will lay ~ 4 nests per season with 2 week intervals between each nest. She will nest (reproduce) approximately every 2.5 to 3 years.

When Loggerhead Hatchlings emerge from the shell, they are attracted to the blue & green wavelengths of light. Blue and green wavelengths of light are naturally reflected off the ocean through celestial light.

If an artificial light source on the beach is brighter than the natural light, the hatchlings will head towards this artificial source. These artificial lights can be a direct source such as a beach front home’s exterior flood light or a street light; the artificial light can also be indirect, light pollution that creates a sky glow effect.

If a sea turtle hatchling is disoriented by artificial light, the maximum federal fine is $25,000 for harming a threatened species.
Points of Interest

1 Botany Bay Plantation

Protected as private lands handed down through centuries by planters made rich by Edisto’s slave laborers working its fertile ground, Civil War and Reconstruction led to industrial tycoons discovering the natural treasures of South Carolina’s Lowcountry. Plantation after plantation, bought for getaways and recreation, evolved into the conservation ethic of “This is my land and it shall be Forever Wild.” Those last words, “Forever Wild,” today appear on bumper stickers provided by the S.C. Department of Natural Resources (DNR), which oversees Botany Bay. Read about how this land came to be part of the S.C. Department of Natural Resources on page XX.

2 The Edisto Beach State Park

An oceanfront campground on a palmetto-lined beach famed for its shelling is just one highlight of Edisto Beach State Park. The park also offers another campground deep in the maritime forest full of live oaks and some of the state’s tallest palmetto trees, as well as a row of comfortable cabins nestled in the woods but with a front-row view of miles of pristine marshland. The park also has an environmental education center, a “green” building full of exhibits that highlight the natural history of Edisto Island and the surrounding ACE Basin, one of the nation’s largest preserved estuaries.

Admissions: $5/adult; $3.50/SC seniors; $3/child age 6-15; Free for children 5 and younger. Office Hours: M-F 9am-5pm, Days and Hours of Operation: M-S, 8 am-6 pm (extended during DST)

3 The Edisto Museum

Explore the history and artifacts unique to Edisto Island, South Carolina, a special place with a fascinating story to share. For well over 300 years, Native Americans, Spanish priests, Spanish pirates, English settlers, Africans, and others including a famous Motown musician have come to Edisto Island and left their influence on this beautiful and unique island.

At the Edisto Museum, you can learn what they left behind, and all of these objects have a story to tell. From its opening in 1991, the Edisto Museum has preserved the objects of Edisto Island and interpreted them to illustrate the history and natural history of the Island.

If you enjoy history, this is a must see when you’re visiting Edisto! The Edisto Island Museum is located in the center of Edisto Island, just off scenic Highway 174, far from the hustle and bustle of the mainland. They are open Tuesday-Saturday from 1:00-4:00. Admission is $4.00 for adults, $3.00 for seniors and $2.00 for students. Children 7 and under and members are admitted free.
Be adventurous, discover Edisto...

Explore the history and culture along Edisto Island’s Scenic Highway. This self-guided tour takes you along a beautiful drive and back through time as you travel across Edisto Island. Download a self-guided tour app of Edisto Scenic Hwy 174!
Yes, even Edisto “has an app for that.” The Edisto Scenic Hwy 174 App brings Edisto online with new technology for people who love Edisto. What better than to explore Edisto (aka Edislow) than at your own pace? Edisto’s only tour App from Botany Bay Ecotours allows just that. Available for download on iphone or ipad from the App Store, Edisto’s Scenic Hwy 174 App is a self-guided tour along the National Scenic Byway 174. “Since starting my business in 2008, I’ve met so many people who are annual visitors to Edisto. They love this island and the community. The island also attracts first-timers who feel that it’s love at first sight. I created the App with both clients in mind” says Meg Hoyle, the App’s creator and owner of Botany Bay Ecotours. “The self-guided tour is something people can use time and again as they revisit Edisto or share it with friends visiting for the first time.”

The app is designed to start at the bridge onto the island and wind along 174 with information about the history and culture of the island along the way. “What’s so great is that the app can be used from any point along Hwy 174 because there are GPS triggers that recognize where the traveler is located. So it can be used at any point along 174,” Hoyle explains. Traveling 174 tells a story about Edisto and its history. It’s easy to fly down the road heading for the beach and not even realize the depth of history and culture passing just outside the vehicle’s windows. But that’s the case of missing the journey and just focusing on the destination. As Edisto lovers know, Edisto is so much more than the beach. Gullah history and culture is all around the island and the App tells the story of Edisto. Be sure to pull off the road and take the time to enjoy the various sites marked by the App.

Edisto’s Scenic Hwy 174 App has stops along and off of Hwy 174 that are important to the community and its history. It’s great to deepen one’s knowledge of the area and is perfect for sharing with children. Meg says, “For me, history comes alive on Edisto and I love being able to share stories about the island and how residents influenced and were influenced by historical events. With the App, people can pull off the road and enjoy the amazing architecture, natural scenery and stories of Edisto”

MURDER ON EDISTO
An Edisto Island Mystery
Edisto Reads:

Murder on Edisto

Author C. Hope Clark met her husband on a federal investigation; he being the agent and she the cooperating individual. Not long after, she determined that her love of writing might blossom best in the mystery genre, involving the intellectual twists and turns of novels that kept her up late at night, and a career was born.

Hope has authored two series, The Carolina Slade Mysteries and The Edisto Island Mysteries, all of which take place in South Carolina settings, but she professes that Edisto is her favorite locale for suspense. The history of Gone with the Wind type plantations, ghost tales of heart-broken lovers, and the constant roll and call of the sea beckon for stories. Moss draping from ancient oaks, white crested egrets eying trespassers with suspicion, crab nets, surf fishing, and the air so thick with humidity one could drink the air. It doesn’t take long for such a setting to become part of one’s DNA. Using that environment, Murder on Edisto fell into place and took on a personality that readers seem to adore.

Hope grew up in the Lowcountry, and spent many moments on Edisto Beach, a place she views as a second home and heaven on earth. When her publisher asked for a second series, suggesting that the setting be an entrancing one, Hope saw Edisto Island the only option for Murder on Edisto. Putting murder mysteries in a place that knows no violence other than that of the Mother Nature variety contributed to the shock factor for the reader, raising the tension for the protagonist to solve the crime so that she could put her beloved Edisto back to right.
Her other mysteries are Lowcountry Bribe, Tidewater Murder, and Palmetto Poison, tales of rural crime the likes that urban dwellers would not imagine. Lowcountry Bribe was a finalist for the Daphne du Maurier Award for Mystery/Suspense, and both Lowcountry Bribe and Tidewater Murder won EPPIE awards for the mystery genre.

Murder on Edisto has become an Edisto Island favorite, found in many a beach house and on the nightstands of most residents. Edisto Bookstore maintains a ready supply of Hope Clark’s mysteries, but admits that Murder on Edisto is the title of most demand. The sequel, Edisto Jinx, is due out in fall 2015, also from Bell Bridge Books. All books are available through wherever books are sold.

Hope also counsels writers through her award-winning site Fundsforwriters.com, chosen by Writer’s Digest for its 101 Best Websites for Writers for the past fourteen years. Noted for being a dynamic speaker, Hope is frequently requested for appearances at conferences and book clubs across the country.

Murder on Edisto, Bell Bridge Books

Her husband is murdered by the Russian mob, Boston detective Callie Jean Morgan suffers a mental break and relinquishes her badge to return home to South Carolina. She has no idea how to proceed with her life, but her son deserves to move on with his, so she relocates them to the family vacation home on Edisto Beach, where she always retreated as a child, where healing seemed to reside in the palmettos, the breeze, even the grains of sand. Yes, maybe this is where she and Jeb needed to be, for the time being. No badges, no cases, no stress.

But the day they arrive, Callie finds her childhood mentor and elderly neighbor murdered. Her fragile sanity is threatened when the murderer taunts her, and the home that was to be her sanctuary is repeatedly violated. Callie loses her fight to walk away from law enforcement as she becomes the only person able to pursue the culprit who’s turned the coastal paradise into a paranoid patch of sand where nobody’s safe. But what will it cost her?
An explosion shot flames out of the roof. She pulled against the officer. “John!”

Fire fighters labored to unravel more hoses. In the background, she heard Jeb screaming for his father above all the sirens and people hollering.

A deafening blast. The force hurled her and the cop backward across the lawn. Air whooshed from her lungs as her back slammed into the grass. She lay half-dazed, but pain still tore through her left forearm.

Two fire fighters lifted her and smothered her burning sleeve, careful not to hit the jagged piece of half-embedded shrapnel that had ripped open her arm.

She stared numb at the burning wreckage of her home as someone fussed over her. No one could have survived that explosion. Then, as if to confirm the terrible finality, she caught the reality of John’s death in the sorrow of a fire fighter’s eyes, the slow shake of his head to his partner. Their glances back at her.

Jeb beat his way through the throng and threw himself into her arms. At first she didn’t hear his sobs, then her son’s deep wrenching cries reverberated against her collarbone. She dug her fingers into his hair, her injured arm around his trembling body.

“Shhh,” she said against Jeb’s shoulder. She couldn’t bring herself to say everything would be all right. Nothing would ever be right again. As she stroked his head, she squeezed her eyes shut, and her tears leaked into his shirt. She could pray John was kidnapped, but her heart told her it just wasn’t so.

1954 COTTAGEVILLE HWY. • 843-539-1600 • BROOK SMITH, OWNER
Edisto Beach, South Carolina residents, Steve and Dianna Kilpatrick are photographers and owners of Colorful Things Photography. Their business specializes in family, wedding and portrait photography where Steve is the photographer and Dianna is the image editor and business manager. During the off-season much of their travel time is spent on landscape and nature photography. Steve and Dianna’s work can be seen at arts and crafts shows in South Carolina, North Carolina and Georgia. Their web site, www.colorfulthingsphotography.com, not only showcases their nature photography but displays the family and wedding galleries of their clients. According to Steve, catching the right moment in nature photography is being in the right place at the right time. This concept is even more important with family and wedding (continued on pg 34) photography where special moments disappear quickly. Like most professional photographers, he has taken thousands of film, slide, and digital images striving to capture those special moments that become treasures with time. Steve became fascinated with photography and cameras growing up in the mountains of North Carolina where landscape and wildlife photography was fun but challenging. Steve’s bird and nature photographs have been South Carolina Wildlife Magazine award winners. They have also appeared as cover shots for The Chat, a birding journal, and featured on the Carolina Bird Club website.

Dianna is an artist and photographer, utilizing her talents to edit images and create beautiful custom albums and coffee-table books. Although she enjoys photography, her first love is painting. In the off-season she focuses on adding to her series of beach themed, hand-painted Christmas ornaments. The series, entitled Coastal Collection Ornaments, is in its 13th year. Her ornaments are in demand by collectors throughout the Carolinas.

Steve and Dianna are members of the Edisto Art Guild, the Edisto Chamber of Commerce, Wedding and Portrait Photographers International, and National Association of Photoshop Professionals. They have also led photography seminars for the Santee Birding and Nature Festival.

Client Comments

"From listing to closing the recent sale of our house was one of the fastest and smoothest ever thanks to Jeanine's efficient, professional assistance." Betsy Hart

"Jeanine spent time getting to know us as people, not just as purchasers so she was able to guide us to the property that will work for us not only for today but also for tomorrow." Charlie & Jane Marrow

"Jeanine really listened to our needs and found us the perfect house to make great family memories in Edisto Beach." Bill & Dianne Wallace

"Jeanine was awesome! She listed and sold our Edisto home & townhouse in Columbia in several weeks. Jeanine found us a place to rent while we are building our dream home on the deepwater lot she sold us 3 years ago." Cathy C. Price

"Jeanine was excellent! We fell in love with Edisto & Jeanine helped find the perfect home for us. Her knowledge of Edisto Beach real estate was unprecedented, she guided us through the process & handled unexpected surprises with ease. She was readily available & was never frustrated w/our extended search. Without Jeanine's expertise we would never have found our own little piece of Edisto." Amanda Goins
