

Bio – Francine Morrison

Francine is the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Albert Morrison Sr. She has one son, Gregory Morrison, two grandchildren, Shakora and Gregory Jr., and two great-grandchildren. A graduate of both Jane Edwards Elementary School and St. Paul High School, Francine has a Bachelor's Degree in Sociology and a Master's Degree in Vocational Rehabilitation. She is a licensed Master Social Worker for the State of South Carolina. Francine attends the Allen AME Church of Edisto with Pastor Rev. Rose Goodwater Richardson. She is employed with Charleston County Schools as an Administrative Secretary and Bookkeeper. She is also employed at Pressley's at the Marina as a hostess.

Francine's community involvement includes the following:

- President of Community Service of Edisto
- President of Edisto Youth Recreation Program
- Board Member of Edisto Preservation Alliance
- Co-Chair of the Martin Luther King Committee
- Social Action Chair for Allen AME Church
- Chairperson for Gordon Locatis Scholarship
- Precinct Clerk for the Board of Election for Edisto
- PME Director, Promotion and Mission Education for the South Carolina conference of the AME Church
- Member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority
- Member of Queen of Sheba Tent
- Notary for the State of South Carolina.

She enjoys working with her community, working with children and meeting new people.